WFSDallas is Chosen by Results for America for their 2025 State and Local Workforce Fellowship

DALLAS — WFSDallas is thrilled to be selected as one of the 2025 State and Local Workforce Fellowship participants, alongside over 70 workforce professionals from 16 jurisdictions nationwide. This Fellowship, launched by Results for America (RFA), offers an incredible opportunity to further enhance evidence-based strategies that will connect workers to quality jobs, strengthen the local economy, and improve workforce outcomes.

As part of the Fellowship, WFSDallas will gain access to tailored technical assistance, expert training on best practices, and actionable tools that will help accelerate our impact. The knowledge gained will support our mission to provide competitive solutions for employers and ensure quality jobs for individuals in the Greater Dallas area.

“We are proud to be part of the 2025 State and Local Workforce Fellowship,” said Ashlee Verner, Interim President of Workforce Solutions Greater Dallas. “This fellowship will allow us to collaborate with workforce leaders across the country, share insights, and continue to drive forward our efforts to build a more robust, inclusive workforce for the Dallas region. The resources and expertise provided will be invaluable in strengthening our workforce system and creating economic opportunities for all.”

Since its inception in 2019, the Fellowship has helped workforce leaders implement performance-based contracting, align funding with proven practices, and drive better employment and wage outcomes through data-driven innovations.

“This Fellowship acts as a catalyst to improve meaningful results: better jobs, better wages, and more economic opportunity,” said Jess Valand, Director, Workforce and Economic Development at Results for America.
